VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

FINDLAY - HANCOCK COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Friends of the Library

Read for Life

Opportunities

The Friends of the Library bookstore, The Book Cellar, needs volunteers to help with assisting customers by answering questions, working as a cashier, and helping to sort and stock books. Most volunteers work a 2-3 hour shift twice a month. If you have more questions or wish to volunteer, please contact Emilie at 419-722-3541 or email us at bookcellar@findlaylibrary.org. The Book Cellar is located in the Main Library's lower level.

HOURS

Monday: 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM
Wednesday: 10:00 AM - 5:00 PM
Friday: 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Read for Life (Adult Literacy Services) needs volunteers to help adults improve their basic reading, writing, and speaking skills. Volunteers help students reach goals such as reading, or improving job skills. Volunteers generally give two hours per week and make a one-year commitment to the program. Before tutors are matched with a student, they must complete a one time tutor training class given at the library. For information on the next training session, call 419-422-3755 or e-mail: readforlife@findlaylibrary.org.

Shelf Reading

Volunteers help organize, shelve and straighten books and media materials. They perform routine shelf checks to ensure materials have been shelved correctly. Knowledge of basic alphabetical and numerical filing is required.

Teens

Teen volunteers work year-round. Teens assist at regular children and teen events. The Youth Advisory Board (YAB) strives for the betterment of the community through teen involvement. YABs create fun, interactive, educational programs for the teens of Hancock County. They plan meetings, participate in enriching community activities, and host fun events. All teens ages 13-18 are invited to apply.

Tweens

The Tween Interest Group (TWIG) is a volunteer program for 4th-6th graders. The group helps to develop and run library programs for tweens and families and encourages tween reading through peer book recommendations; members can even suggest new books to add to the library's collection.

Special Projects

Volunteer service may be provided on a one-time basis or periodically during special projects or events such as SummerREAD and CommunityREAD.
