WHO WE ARE

- The Friends of the Findlay-Hancock County Public Library is a volunteer, non-profit organization dedicated to supporting the Library and its relationship to the community.
- The Friends are enthusiastic supports united by a common concern for the well-being of the Library.
- The activities of the Friends are managed and directed by the Board of Trustees.
- As a Friend, your annual dues will enable special Library programs to continue and expand. The Friends also welcome donations, gifts, memorials and bequests for the enhancement of the Library.
- Donations are also most welcome to the Friends of the Findlay-Hancock County Public Library Fund at the The Findlay-Hancock County Community Foundation.

WHAT WE DO

- Our Friends help promote the Library, develop activities, present special programs, and encourage reading and use of the Library.
- We sponsor special library programs, staff development and staff recognition.

- We raise funds through membership dollars, gifts, and sales in the Book Cellar.
- We manage and staff the Book Cellar where we sell gently used books.
- We conduct a used book sale once or twice a year.
- We meet three times each year: February, (our annual meeting) May and September. We encourage your attendance at these meetings to share ideas, volunteer for programs, and keep up-to-date on the Library's activities.

WHY YOU SHOULD BECOME A FRIEND

- Your contribution of time and money not only benefits the Library, but also your community!
- You will be eligible for special sales in the Book Cellar.
- You will be given advance notice of upcoming Friends' events and receive out newsletter.
- Your annual membership dues and gifts are tax deductible.
