Educational Resources
online and at your library

The Great Courses

What is it?
This is a series of college-level audio and video courses, covering many topics, including subjects such as history, science, art, communication, and more.

How do I use it?
You can access some courses through the library's digital collections, Hoopla and The Ohio Digital Library. Visit www.findlaylibrary.org and click the links to Hoopla and Overdrive on the left side of the screen. You can also download the Hoopla and Libby apps on your device. Once you register with your library card number and pin, you can search for "the great courses" to see what's available.

Khan Academy

What is it?
Khan Academy offers practice exercises, instructional videos, and personalized learning that empowers learners to study at their own pace in and outside the classroom. Programs are geared toward learners of all ages. Khan Academy also provides tools for parents and teachers.

How do I use it?
Visit www.khanacademy.org and click "Sign up" at the top, right of the screen. Choose whether you are joining as a learner, teacher, or parent and enter your date of birth. You will be asked to select courses that interest you to get started. Once you're logged in you can browse all available courses.

*Khan Academy currently displays a notice about how it can be used for remote learning during school closures.

EBSCO LearningExpress®

What is it?
Made accessible by Ohio Means Jobs, LearningExpress Library provides support to students and professionals. Several courses aim to help users build business skills, such as productivity and public speaking, and computer skills, such as Internet basics and using Microsoft Office Products.

How do I use it?
Visit www.ohiomeansjobs.com and click the "Online Training" link at the bottom of the screen. From there you can access LearningExpress anonymously or choose to sign into an Ohio Means Jobs account. Click on a topic to see a list of available courses.

What is it?
Lynda.com provides self-directed, self-paced online learning for users of any skill level and covers a wide variety of topics, including business, advertising, computer skills, education, writing, and so much more.

How do I use it?
Visit www.findlaylibrary.org and click the "Adults" tab. Then click "Online Reference Collection". Choose "Jobs & Continuing Education" from the Categories on the left side of the screen. Lynda.com is the first resource. You will need your library card number and pin to log in.

What is it?
Mango is an online language learning system with over 70 language courses, including English as a Second Language courses for speakers of 21 languages. You can create a free account or access Mango as a guest.

How do I use it?
Visit www.findlaylibrary.org and click the "Adults" tab. Then click "Online Reference Collection". Choose "Language Learning" from the Categories on the left side of the screen. Mango is the first resource. You will need your library card number and pin to get started.

Libby
Access the Ohio Digital Library with Libby. Install the Libby app from the app store on you Android, iOS, or Windows 10 device (utilize the Overdrive app on Kindle devices). The Ohio Digital Library provides eBooks, digital audiobooks, digital magazines, and videos.

Install Hoopla Digital on your Android, iOs, or Kindle device, or visit www.hoopladigital.com to get started. Hoopla provides audiobooks, movies, music, comics, eBooks, and television shows.

Visit www.findlaylibrary.org to explore all of our databases and digital collections.

If you have questions about accessing any of our resources, please call the reference desk at 419-422-1712.

FINDLAY - HANCOCK COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY